

Tangy IV Wind Farm: S36C EIA Report 2026 - Proposed Varied Development
Figure V3b 7.4a - Viewpoint 9: Campbeltown (Ralston Road) - Proposed Varied Development Wireline

|                                                                 |                                                                                  |                                                   |                                                                                                |                                                                                 |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Turbines numbered in red would feature aviation warning lights. | OS reference:Ground level:Direction of view:Nearest visible turbine: | 171238 E 619830 N31.1 m AOD342°9.0 km | Horizontal field of view:Principal distance:Paper size:Correct printed image size: | 53.5° (planar projection)812.5 mm841 x 297 mm (half A1)820 x 260 mm |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------|