The Electricity Works (Environmental Impact Assessment)
(Scotland) Regulations 2017

As directed by regulation 23(4) of the Electricity Works (Environmental Impact Assessment) (Scotland) 2017, notice is hereby given that SSE Generation Limited has been granted consent by Scottish Ministers to construct and operate an extension to the existing Sloy Hydroelectric Power Station to add pumped storage capability and also to operate the generating station at an increased capacity on land within the grounds of the existing Sloy Hydroelectric Power Station at Inveruglas in the planning authority area of Loch Lomond & The Trossachs National Park.

Scottish Ministers have also directed, under section 57 (2) of the Town & Country Planning (Scotland) Act 1997, that planning permission is deemed to be granted. Copies of the decision statement and related documentation can be obtained from <https://www.energyconsents.scot>.

Copies of the decision statement and related documentation have been made available to Loch Lomond & The Trossachs National Park to be made available for public inspection by being placed on the planning register.
